

CerretaniAviation.com

CerretaniAviation.com is a web site for professional aircraft sales and acquisition company. Thus, the system should be a useful tool to sell aircrafts to the company's customers.

The primary system functionality:

- Provision of the company information (company bio, holders, staff & etc.);
- Company news and subscription services;
- Listing of marketed planes with detailed descriptions and photos;
- Support of the acquisition form to help prospects buy the aircraft;
- PlaneFinder: step-by-step wizard which helps customer find a proper aircraft based on selected parameters;
- Sales section and "Get estimate" form to help clients sell their old planes;
- Aircraft comparison tool for detailed comparison of two selected aircrafts;
- Number of valuable resources: budget calculator, recent transactions list, links and articles and etc.

The system has a handy CMS for management of all system content and listings. Also the back-end subsystem supports mass uploading of planes listing and data.

The system works on LAMP platform (Linux, Apache, MySQL and PHP) and compatible (including back-end) with almost all browsers (Internet Explorer, Mozilla, Opera, Safari, Netscape and so on).
